After section 8

Jamie Greene

- 5 After section 8, insert—
- <Duty with respect to ensuring individuals can make informed choices
- (1) In exercising their functions under paragraph (b) of section 8, the Scottish Ministers must use their best endeavours to ensure that persons who—
- (a) are, or may be, considering making an application for a redress payment, or
  - (b) have decided to make, or have made, such an application,
- have the opportunity to make informed choices.
- (2) Accordingly, the Scottish Ministers must prepare and publish a statement setting out information about—
- (a) the options available to such persons at each stage of the process of making an application for a redress payment,
  - (b) the support and other assistance available to such persons under the redress scheme, and
  - (c) the redress for survivors of historical child abuse in care in Scotland, including financial redress, which may be available to such persons otherwise than under the redress scheme.
- (3) The statement (the “summary of options”) must include, or set out details of where to find, information about—
- (a) the options a person has in relation to—

- (i) making, pausing and withdrawing an application for a redress payment,
  - (ii) accepting an offer of a redress payment, including the timescales for so doing, and the effect of signing and returning a waiver,
  - (iii) requesting a review of a determination made by Redress Scotland,
  - (b) the importance of obtaining independent legal advice, in particular before accepting an offer of a redress payment and signing and returning a waiver,
  - (c) the availability, under the redress scheme, of payment of fees for legal work in connection with applications,
  - (d) the support available under the scheme in connection with applications for redress payments.
- (4) The summary of options may include such other information as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers must keep the summary of options under review and may modify it from time to time.
- (6) In complying with their duty under subsection (5), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to any recommendations included, by virtue of paragraph 17(1A) of schedule 1, in an annual report prepared by Redress Scotland.
- (7) If the Scottish Ministers modify the summary of options, they must publish the modified summary.>

- <Circumstances in which the waiver must be disapplied
- (1) Where subsection (2) applies, an applicant may apply to the Scottish Ministers for a waiver signed by the applicant under section 45 to be disapplied.
- (2) This subsection applies where—
- (a) there has been a change in circumstances after an applicant has signed a waiver under section 45 such that it would not be fair, just and reasonable for the applicant to continue to be bound by the waiver, or
- (b) new information is obtained by the applicant which, if had been known at the time of the signing the waiver, would have been a material consideration by the applicant in deciding whether to abandon or bring civil proceedings.
- (3) An application under subsection (1) is to be determined on behalf of Redress Scotland by a panel of members of Redress Scotland appointed by the chairing member in accordance with sections 33 and 34.
- (4) An applicant who is dissatisfied with the determination under subsection (3) may request a review of the determination in accordance with sections 52.
- (5) Where a waiver has been disapplied and revoked under this section an applicant may—
- (a) bring civil proceedings, and
- (b) section 45(5) does not apply to the applicant.>

After section 46

Ross Greer

19 After section 46, insert—

<Report on effect of waiver on participation in redress scheme

Before the end of the period of 18 months beginning with the day section 45 comes into force, the Scottish Ministers must lay before the Scottish Parliament a report setting out—

- (a) their assessment of the impact (if any) of the waiver under section 45 on applications for a redress payment,
- (b) the steps (if any) they intend to take as a result of that assessment,
- (c) where they do not intend to take any such steps, their reasons for that.>

Brian Whittle

20 After section 46, insert—

<Report on effectiveness of waiver

Before the end of the period of 3 years beginning with the day of Royal Assent, the Scottish Ministers must lay before the Scottish Parliament a report setting out—

- (b) the steps (if any) they intend to take as a result of that assessment,
- (c) where they do not intend to take any such steps, their reasons for that.>

After section 64

Daniel Johnson

21 After section 64, insert—

<Access to information and evidence by nominated beneficiary

- (1) This section applies where a nominated beneficiary—
  - (a) has been invited to take over an application by virtue of section 64 and the period specified in section 68(3) has not expired, or
  - (b) has requested a review under section 65.
- (2) Redress Scotland and the Scottish Ministers must, on request, provide the nominated beneficiary with access to any information or evidence held by it or them which has been obtained by or provided to it or them in connection with the application to which the invitation or, as the case may be, the review relates.
- (3) Nothing in this section authorises the disclosure of any information or evidence—
  - (a) that would be likely to identify any person other than the nominated beneficiary or the person in respect of whom the application to which the invitation or, as the case may be, review relates,
  - (b) that would be in contravention of the data protection legislation.

- (4) In this section, “the data protection legislation” has the meaning given by section 3(9) of the Data Protection Act 2018.>

- <The Survivor Forum
- (1) The Scottish Ministers must establish and maintain a forum, known as the Survivor Forum, consisting of—
- (a) survivors of historical child abuse in care in Scotland,
- (b) such other persons as Ministers consider appropriate.
- (2) The purpose of the Forum is to provide feedback to the Scottish Ministers and Redress Scotland on the exercise of the functions conferred on them or on it under or by virtue of this Act.
- (3) But the Forum may not provide feedback on the determinations made in relation to redress payments in individual cases.

- (4) The Scottish Ministers may pay Forum members such allowances and expenses as they consider appropriate.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations—
  - (a) make further provision about or in connection with the Forum,
  - (b) make provision for the dissolution of the Forum in connection with or following the dissolution of Redress Scotland under section 95.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) may modify any enactment (including this Act).>
